Quality of Life

Greater Hazleton offers residents an outstanding quality of life with plenty of cultural and recreational opportunities, an inexpensive cost of living, and excellent healthcare and education systems. A wide range of employment opportunities and an outstanding business climate for entrepreneurs, small businesses and large industries complete our community picture. The beauty of all four seasons makes the Greater Hazleton area an outdoor delight. Hiking, biking, skiing, fishing and boating are just a few of the pastimes that can be pursued. We have semi-pro baseball and hockey teams, and host two NASCAR races each year within a 45-minute drive. Greater Hazleton is also perfectly situated to access Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore because of our strategic location near Interstates 80, 81, 84, 380 and 476.

For more information regarding the quality of life in Greater Hazleton, please visit www.hazletonchamber.org or contact them at (570) 455-1509. Their web site contains a variety of information about our community, including an events calendar and information about healthcare, arts, culture, dining, lodging, recreation, housing, media, shopping and schools.
